Notes for CECIL TOM HARPER:

Cecil enlisted in the Army on April 29, 1941. He was in Company M, 32nd Infantry, 7th Division. He fought in the Battle of Attu Island and the Battle of the Marshall Islands. He was killed at the age of 26 on October 23, 1944, at the Battle of Leyte in the initial landing. He is buried in a VA cemetery in Manila, Philippines.

NEWSPAPER ARTICLE -- CECIL HARPER LIKES THE ARMY. Cecil Harper, a Huntsville army boy stationed at Camp Roberts, Cali., who writes to express how much he appreciates receiving the Record, says he visited Arkansas friends at Fullerton recently and spent a night with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harrington. Cecil adds that he likes army life; and as an encouragement to other Madison county boys who are or will be enlisted in the service he encloses the following clipping for publication:

OUR ARMY

We all know our freedom is threatened
By the greed of nations at strife.
But that freedom shall not be destroyed,
As long as our army has life.

So, boys, when your're in the Army,
After being caught in the draft,
Don't act as tho' you're in prison,
Or serving some political graft.

For the Army's a mighty symbol,
Which stands for the freedom of man.
And it's up to the youth of America
To insure it a permanent stand.

So! instead of beefing and groaning
When the top kick yells a command,
Just remember the cause behind the game,
And prove yourself a man.

Suppose you do land in the kitchen,
"Pearl diving" for cups and plate,
Just grin and bear it, for no job is too tough
For any soldier to take.

For the Army is just what you make it,
The choice is left up to youth,
To be men and win admiration
Or, cowards, in fear of the truth.

So boys let's come to attention!
And salute the Red, White, and Blue,
And always be true to your country,
So the nation will stand back of you.

NEWSPAPER STORY.

Paper dated July 10, 1931

A Wedding Present

Charley and Mrs Wahlquist presented to us a fine granddaughter on July 6, on our 41st wedding anniversary. Our wife was present when Dr. O.H. King handed the chap to Madeline and Charley on what he said was his 29th wedding anniversary. Phyllis Nadine is the name of the little lady and she seems to like it very much. Because of the much petting and caressing by the two motherly and real good-looking grandmothers, and the wonderful welcome accorded her by the fond parents, Nadine very politely informed Dr. King he could go home, that she had decided to stay. It is our 14th grandchild.
END OF NEWSPAPER STORY.

The family story says that Madeline had gone out to use the outdoor toilet and Nadine's play dress-up clothing caught on fire from the fireplace. When Madeline came back to the house Nadine was standing in the door screaming. Nadine had a belt on that they could not get off because it melted on her and she burned to death. Madeline may have been committed to a mental institution after Nadine's death.

Notes for JAMES W. WOODARD:

Obituary from Arkansas Democrat Gazette --

James "Jimmy" W. Woodard, age 83, was killed in an automobile accident on Highway 70, Hot Springs, Tuesday, June 10, 2003. He was born Oct. 9, 1919, in Paragould, Ark., to Wallace Woodard and Ethel Williams. The family moved to Little Rock, where Jimmy graduated from Little Rock High School. Two weeks after Pearl Harbor, he joined the Navy to become a fighter pilot. One week before graduation from pre-flight school, he was notified he had been chosen to star in a documentary film "We Fly Tomorrow" that compared the typical naval cadet to the aircraft he would soon be flying. The film was shown throughout the United States as a recruiting film and won the Academy Award for being the best documentary film in 1942. Jimmy went on to fly 144 missions from the Sagaman, Terrara, and Lexington Aircraft Carriers.

After Jimmy was discharged from the Navy, he obtained the Piper Aircraft distributorship for the State of Arkansas. The company was rated number one in the sale of corporate aircraft 11 out of 15 years he ran it. He had a contract to fly the first astronauts on special trips. He knew them personally and also had flown Werner Von Braun on several occasions. He was the first person to head the State Department of Aeronautics.

Jimmy acted in several movies and 100 or so commercials including a part as a geologist for J.R. Eging in the television show "Dallas." He was Jason Robard's double in "Breaking Home Ties." Jimmy was the first "Voice of the Razorbacks" on Channel 7 and broadcast the Football Game of the Week on CBS.

His love was the Lord and Jesus Christ, his family, friends, and country. He was a member of Hot Springs Village Shriners and the V.F.W.

He will be missed by all who had ever met him, because he was a man of faith and loved people.

He leaves his wife, Reba; six children, Sharon and Garry Dyke, and Debby and Mike Fravitt, Jim and Connie Woodard, Jr., Linda and Buddy Helsm, Randy and Susan Woodward, and Bob and Deena Lanier. He also leave 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, one born after his untimely death.

There will be a viewing at CedarVale Funeral Home from 5 to 7 p.m. Thursday evening and funeran services will be at Village Baptist Church, 100 Ponderosa Way, Hot Springs Village, on Friday at 2 p.m. with a reception to follow.
